

Chris Hudson, AIA, President and Chief Executive Officer of Morris Architects, has been with the firm for more than 30 years. Mr. Hudson heads a core management team that guides the firm in terms of business development, marketing, operations, financial, personnel, and delivery in design and technology. In addition to his firm-wide management overview, he has actively participated in a number of the firm's most prominent projects. Previous responsibilities at Morris Architects have included the position of Managing Principal of the Houston office and Manager of Interior Design.

A graduate of the University of Illinois with a Master of Architecture degree, Mr. Hudson is widely recognized for his contributions to the architectural community. He is a recipient of an AIA President's Citation award for coordinating the Houston Texas Architects Committee Contributions. He has also been instrumental in guiding the firm to its recognition as the American Institute of Architects Houston Firm of the Year, and it's Blue Chip Enterprise Award from Nation's Business.

Mr. Hudson is Past President of the American Institute of Architects Houston Chapter, serves on the Rice Design Alliance Board of Directors and is President-Elect of The Texas Society of Architects. He is also a board member of both the Houston Architecture Foundation and the Texas Architectural Foundation. He actively participates in Central Houston and Greater Houston Partnership activities and is a past Chairman of the Global Design Alliance.
